

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

MEMORANDUM

TO: All MSU Faculty, Students, and Staff

FROM: Doug Gage, Ph.D.
Vice President for Research and Innovation

DATE: November 1, 2022

SUBJECT: Export Control and Trade Sanctions Policy Statement as required by the U.S. Commerce Department, Bureau of Industry and Security, Elements of an Effective Export Compliance Program

Michigan State University (MSU) is committed to compliance with the Export Control Regulations including the Export Administration Regulations, International Traffic in Arms Regulations, and related export control trade sanctions and embargoes. It is MSU's policy that all faculty, students, and staff comply with the United States Export Control Regulations. Under no circumstances will exports be knowingly made by any individuals operating on behalf of MSU that are contrary to U.S. Export Control Regulations.

MSU faculty, students and staff shall not export any export-controlled technology unless appropriate authorization has been obtained. No activities will be undertaken that are in violation of the United States policies which seek to control nuclear proliferation, missile technology, and chemical and biological weapons. Failure to comply with the Export Control Regulations may result in the imposition of criminal and/or civil fines and penalties, including jail time and monetary penalties, and MSU personnel may be subject to disciplinary action and/or termination.

I ask each of you to take this matter very seriously and to support me in this effort. If you have any questions concerning export compliance, please contact:

Krista Campeau
Director, Export Control and Trade Sanctions
